

There's Music in the Air

Violin sheet music for the piece "There's Music in the Air" by George Frederick Root. The music is written in 4/4 time and consists of two staves. The first staff contains measures 1 through 5, and the second staff contains measures 6 through 10. The music features a simple melody with eighth and quarter notes, and rests. There are 'V' markings above some notes, likely indicating bowing or fingering instructions.

A series of seven rows of the word "tonestro" overlaid on a faint musical staff background. Each row contains three instances of the word "tonestro", each preceded by a black play button icon. The text is slanted to the right.
